Why SWELLCBD?

SwellCBD is natural & safe. All of the plants for our phytocannabinoid rich (PCR) products are grown in the USA. Using organic farming practices, cultivated with naturally developed genetic strains of industrial hemp. Our state-of-the-art cloning program promise continued enhancement of our natural genetic strains and ensures a safe and regulated product, with unsurpassed potency and consistency.

The SwellCBD Process

1. Organic Farming
2. Raw Hemp Processing
3. Proprietary Extraction and Solids Separation
4. Distillation
5. THC Removal and Refining
6. In House and Third-Party Lab Testing
7. Our Proprietary Nanoemulsion Technology

Benefits

- Pharmaceutical Grade CBD
- Broad Spectrum (all cannabinoids without THC)
- Absolutely Zero THC
- Organic & Gluten Free
- Topical, Tincture, Vape and Confection products
- Organically grown medicinal hemp

SwellCBD's Good Manufacturing and Certificates

Each SwellCBD product has a Certificate of Internal Analysis (COIA) and a Certificate of Quality Assurance (CQA) - each gives us different information. The CQA tells us the ingredients, the date of manufacture and attributes (like consistency and color). The COIA gives us the potencies, terpenes, pesticides, solvents and the like.

The COIA is performed on the underlying oil before the final products are made. A large batch of hemp oil will be tested, resulting in a COIA, and then the hemp oil may be split into batches to make different products. Each individual product will then have it's own CQA.
